

FRANÇOIS-XAVIER ROTH

CONDUCTOR

‘Empathetic musicality and flair for colour’

The Times

One of today's most imaginative conductors and programmers, François-Xavier Roth is a charismatic communicator with a voracious intellectual curiosity. He brings fresh perspectives to every kind of classical music, whether performing Baroque music and Stravinsky on original instruments, leading large-scale iconic modern masterpieces, or presenting standard favourites.

Through nurturing long-term musical partnerships, Roth pursues his vision of developing distinctive orchestral sounds and engaging with local audiences, a goal which he has achieved with successive orchestras. In 2025 he took his role as Chief Conductor and Artistic Director of SWR Symphonieorchester – he served as Chief Conductor of its predecessor SWR Sinfonieorchester Freiburg & Baden-Baden from 2011 to 2016. Demonstrating his typical range, across the season he conducts Rebel, an all-French programme, Wagner and Bruckner, as well as tributes to Rihm and Berio. He will also participate in the orchestra's significant educational projects.

As General Music Director of Gürzenich Orchestra and Oper Köln from 2015 to 2024, Roth built on the orchestra's pioneering heritage of having given premieres by Mahler, Brahms and Richard Strauss by premiering many new works. He has been Principal Guest Conductor of London Symphony Orchestra since 2017.

He founded Les Siècles in 2003 to perform wide-ranging repertoire on the instruments for which it was composed and to illuminate the connections between music of various eras, offering thrilling revelations about different sound worlds. Projects included recreating the original sound of Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring, Ravel's Daphnis et Chloé and Debussy's Pelléas et Mélisande. He and the orchestra toured Europe, China and Japan, appearing at the Berlin Musikfest, BBC Proms, Edinburgh and Enescu festivals. They celebrated their 20th anniversary in the 2023–24 season with several tours and special projects.

Roth brings his charisma and command to collaborating on ambitious and impactful projects. In recent years these have included Bernd Alois Zimmermann's epic Die Soldaten, directed by Calixto Bieito, and Philippe Manoury's large-scale spatial triptych Köln Trilogie. In 2023 he spearheaded celebrations for Ligeti's centenary year, curating a two-week festival at Maison Radio France, including Ligeti's thought-provoking masterpiece Le Grand Macabre.

Engagement with new audiences is an essential part of Roth's work, whether speaking from the podium or working with young people and amateurs. With the Festival Berlioz and Les Siècles, he founded the Jeune Orchestre Européen Hector Berlioz, which has its own collection of period instruments and last year performed Les Troyens à Carthage in Berlioz's birthplace. In Cologne he initiated the Bürgerorchester and Bürgerchor, a community orchestra and choir, and his Ohrenauf! youth programme was recipient of a Junge Ohren Produktion Award. His television series Presto! attracted weekly audiences of over three million in France. He has a leading role in the LSO's Panufnik Composers Scheme, mentoring young emerging composers.

Roth's prolific award-winning discography includes the complete tone poems of Richard Strauss, Stravinsky ballets, Ravel and Berlioz cycles, Bruckner, Mahler and Schumann symphonies, and albums commemorating Debussy's centenary. He was awarded the German Record Critics' Honorary Prize 2020, the youngest conductor ever to receive it. He was made a Chevalier of the Légion d'honneur in 2017 and given the Royal Philharmonic Society Conductor Award in 2024, with the jury citation describing him as a 'modern-day musical Midas'.
